FIFTEEN CENTS

SANTA CAME TO TOWN last Saturday, riding on a fire truck and waving to shoppers as he toured the business district. Then he settled down at the rescue squad building to chat with a long line of children who were waiting to meet him. One of them was 5-year-old Erin Wheeler of Port Washington, Wis., the granddaughter of the Kenneth Tuckers of 586 Hillside in Antioch.

Antioch Can't Lure Doctors, Chamber Told

Antioch could use a few more doctors, but it's hard to lure them here - 20 miles from the nearest hospital. That's what Dr. Edward Abderholden told members of the Chamber of Commerce and Industry Monday when they met at Lorenz's Smart Country House.

The subject was "Antioch's Health Needs in the Next 10 Years" and Dr. Abderholden shared the platform with Jim Fields, captain of Antioch's Rescue Squad.

"We want to remain an unpaid department," said Fields, "because we don't want to answer to politicians. But in the next 10 years we'll probably have to give up our present building. Annexations may force us to grow and have two stations, and then volunteers may be a thing of the past."

IN THE NEXT 10 years

Fields sees the village building a new fire department and rescue squad building. He hopes that Antioch's expected growth won't dilute the spirit of the present 17 members of the rescue squad who work free and are proud of their services and outstanding equipment.

Dr. Abderholden asked:

"What do we need in the next 10 years? We need to continue our rescue squad. These guys are well-trained. You have no idea how good they are unless you see them in action."

"We also have to interest young doctors in our rural community and support preventative medicine programs such as the "Save our Sight" program of the Lions Club," he added.

"Doctors don't want to come

No Snowmobile Ordinance For Antioch

The village of Antioch apparently will not adopt a snowmobile ordinance this winter, nor will it set a curfew on snowmobile noise.

Monday night's village board meeting indicated that Antioch will simply abide by the state laws regarding snowmobiles.

This means that the vehicles can't be driven on village streets, or within 15 feet of village streets.

THERE HAS been talk in the last two weeks that there should be a curfew on snowmobile noise, such as midnight on Fridays and Saturdays and 10:30 on other nights. But there apparently will be no curfew.

Snowmobile operators making too much noise, however, could be charged with disturbing the peace. And persons driving the vehicles on, or too close to village streets could be ticketed by police.

Most of the village trustees indicated they wanted to hear the opinions of the several snowmobilers who were in the audience for Monday night's meeting.

Barney Barnstable said: "The village can make its own rules and variations. It doesn't have to go along with the state."

Village attorney Andrew Lynch said: "Normally we have to abide by state law ... we can be more stringent, but not less."

JOHN HORAN said that some communities, such as Winthrop Harbor, allow partial use of some streets for snowmobiles and added, "I think Antioch needs that."

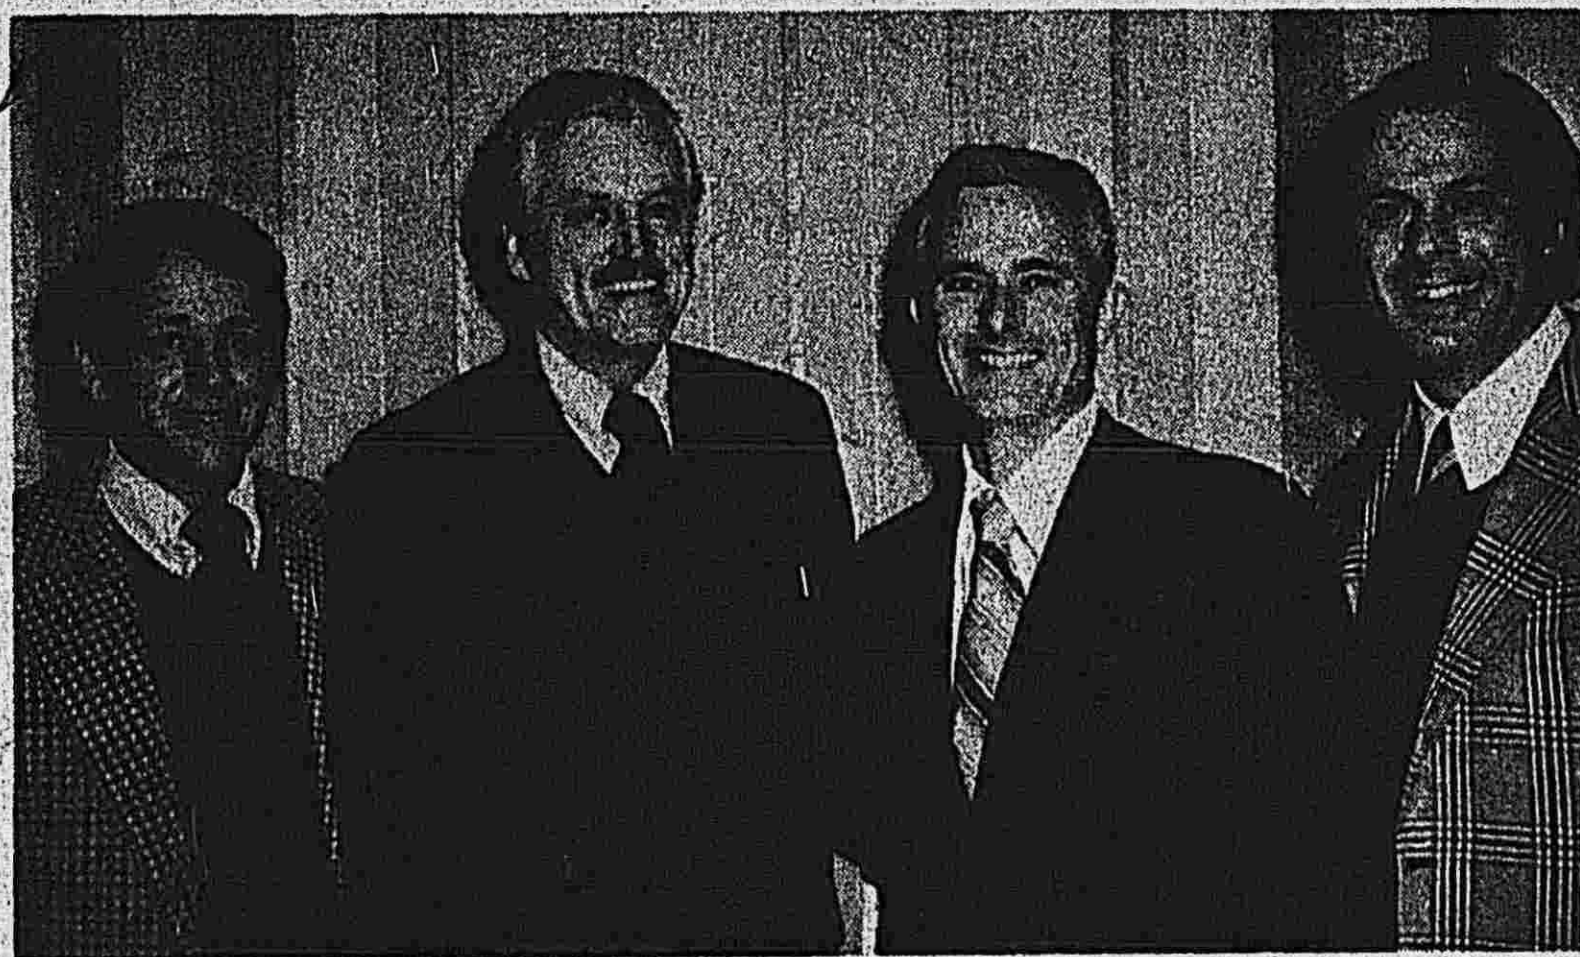

Carol Riska said: "I think every responsible snowmobiler would prefer a legal way of crossing through town. Why not make provisions?"

Many snowmobilers have indicated they would like trails that would enable them to drive their vehicles through the village and out into the township.

The best quip on the subject came from trustee Diane (Willie) Kasik, who said: "If they have to stay 15 feet away from village streets they might be driving through someone's living room."

IN OTHER action, the trustees received a petition from the high school for annexation of its

to an area like this because it's 20 miles from a hospital," Dr. Abderholden said. "But I think our fine rescue squad negates this. They're in constant radio communication with doctors in the hospital. In most emergencies in Antioch, our rescue squad is our best bet."

Dr. Abderholden also said that new doctors are "a new breed," specializing rather than becoming general practitioners.

"Small towns in central Illinois are advertising to lure doctors," he said, "but they don't want that 24-hour-a-day responsibility."

He also said that the range of Antioch's several doctors has grown to western Kenosha County, Waukegan and communities such as Round Lake.

"Fortunately," he said, "this community has a big ace in the hole in our rescue squad. Even though we're 20 miles from a hospital, we're way ahead of Chicago."

Viking Football Players Honored

Over 200 Viking Backers attended the annual Viking Football Banquet held at the Antioch Upper Grade School Nov. 19, to share in the presentation of awards.

Each Viking was presented a trophy for his participation in the junior football program. Special awards were presented to Bobby Auxier and Pete Kessler for most improved players on the Viking PeeWees, league all star trophies to Steve Jennrich and Mike O'Brien from the lightweights and to Mike Fox and Dennis Flaschner from the heavy weights.

Mr. Rich Becker, Viking coach, served as master of ceremonies. Leo McGrain, Viking organization president, introduced the speaker, Mr. Roy Nelson, A.C.H.S. varsity football coach. In his address, Coach Nelson pointed out the lessons that fair play, hard work and diligence can instill in a ball player, and the importance these attributes play in each persons adult life.

Coach Gerry Sanberg, freshman football coach and Mr. Dave Bogarts, A.C.H.S. varsity player, also addressed the gathering.

The finale of the evening was the drawing for the winners of the ticket sales.

First prize, a $300 shopping spree was won by Carole DeBenedetto of Antioch. The second prize, a men's sport coat and slack outfit donated by B.J.'s was won by Ann Borchardt of Antioch. The third prize of a $50 woman's pant suit, donated by The Four Squires was won by Anton Caithamer of Antioch.

The top seller award, A Schwinn Bicycle donated by the Antioch Schwinn Cyclery, was won by Paul Zegan of the PeeWees, second seller award of a $20 gift certificate, donated by Walsh's All Seasons, was won by Tony Mingarelli of the heavyweights and the third prize of a football, donated by Walsh's was won by Bobby Auxier of the PeeWees.

Winners of Viking jackets for high weekly sales were Tony Mingarelli Gary Becker, Kris Vogt, and Paul Zegan.

Foster Homes Needed

Central Baptist Children's Home of Lake Villa has expanded its Foster Care Services department.

Four caseworkers and a department supervisor have been added to the staff. New offices have been prepared on the campus and the agency is now actively recruiting additional foster homes.

Homes are needed for boys and girls from ages 10 to 18, primarily. The majority of these youngsters have had to live in institutions because there was no place else for them to go.

There is also a great need for homes capable of handling hard-to-place children. These "Specialized Foster homes" are for handicapped, retarded and severely disturbed children.

Many of the foster children are also potentially adoptable. All too often when contemplating foster care or adoption, only infants or young children are considered. This is unfortunate because the greater need is for homes for older children who need stable, long-term or permanent placements.

The need is very critical now in the Lake-McHenry area because a number of children are on waiting lists for homes at the present time.

Dan Mannix, supervisor of the Foster Care Program, said that persons interested in this service can contact him at 356-3143 for further details.

Although the remuneration for foster care is small, the rewards for helping a young person to a better life are immeasurable.

What to buy Mom and Dad for Christmas? That's a problem many young people have.

An Antioch man dropped in last week and shared a letter with us. It came from his son last Christmas and was a better gift than any amount of money could buy.

He said we could share the letter with you:

Dear Mom & Dad:

The only gift I have for you is the one the Lord gave you - your son in good health and sound mind - leading a productive and upright life - no longer in drugs and the wrong events that are associated with them. No longer living off you and other people, but standing on my own two feet, working with my own hands, building my life - yes, Mom and Dad, this is the gift for you this Christmas given to you by my Lord and my Savior, Jesus Christ.

Merry Christmas,
Your son,
Jim

The only reason some American families don't own an elephant is because they have never been offered one on the installment plan.

I WOULD like to thank Bill Georgeson and Denny Horton for the $2 they gave me after the Packers beat the Bears Sunday. (We'll forget about the $4 I lost to them in the two previous Bear-Packer games this season.)

Bart Starr should thank Dan Devine for the mild success the Packers have enjoyed this season. It was Devine who acquired for the Packers a quality quarterback, John Hadl, regardless of the price.

The Bears could use a quarterback like Hadl.

MR. GEORGESON, incidentally, was cheated out of one of Antioch's greatest retaliations of the year.

It was such a brilliant idea on his part that we actually regret he wasn't able to pull it off.

You see, about a year ago, we bought Bill's old Cadillac.

Then a couple of weeks ago, someone stole one of Bill's prize decorations from the World Famous Village Pub ... an Andeker beer barrel. And the culprits, whoever they were, hung it in the window of the Antioch News office.

Well, Bill naturally assumed we were the ones who stole it. Secretly, he found an old key to the Cadillac and was about to retaliate by stealing the car from us.

But, unaware of his plans, we traded in the Cadillac on a station wagon. What a shame! It spoiled his brilliant stroke of strategy. What a victory it would have been for Bill if we had walked out and found the car missing!

Life is what happens to you while you are making other plans.

Liberal Programs Cost Us Plenty

By SEN. BARRY GOLDWATER

The efforts of so-called Republican Progressives to move the Ford Administration to the left are intensifying as the 1976 presidential campaign approaches.

And they are calling into question the value of some of the more expensive liberal programs now in operation.

The list is short, but it provides a fair sampling of what the Progressives have given the American people:

SINCE THE war on poverty came into being, total expenditures on social welfare at all levels of government almost tripled. They rose from $77 billion to $215 billion in the brief span of eight years. But the number of Americans officially defined as living in poverty declined by almost one-third, from 33 million in 1965 to 23 million in 1973. And the relative standard of living of low-income families scarcely improved at all, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics. The lowest 20 percent of families classified by money income had an estimated 5.2 percent of the total money income in 1965, and that figure had risen to only 5.5 percent in 1973.

Since 1969 the food stamp program designed by the liberals has undergone a 16-fold increase in its funding level. But it hasn't come close to achieving either of its stated objectives: improvement of nutrition among the poor and supplementation of the income of poor farmers. And the government spends more than $1.09 to provide a dollar's worth of bonus food stamps that have a value to the recipients of only 83 cents.

SINCE ITS inception in 1961, the Urban Mass Transit Assistance Program has squandered hundreds of millions of

ACHS Board To Discuss Discipline

There will be a special meeting of the Board of Education of Antioch Community High School, District 117, on Thursday, at 7 p.m., in the board room.

The purpose of the meeting is "handling student discipline," according to Robert Lindblad, president of the board.

taxpayers' dollars without even beginning to correct the conditions it was set up to alleviate. Despite extraordinary expenditures, it has failed to stop the decline of public transit, to reduce traffic congestion and atmospheric pollution or to improve the mobility of the urban poor.

The Public Housing Program has been a gross misconception from the beginning. Despite enormous expenditures, it has not magically transformed the lives of the nation's slum dwellers, nor has it been effective in the area of slum clearance.

If anything, attempts at slum clearance by the government have added to the housing problems of the poor. They have not erased the slums; merely relocated them. And, of course, using the taxpayers' money the government manages to spend about 20 percent more per structure of housing than private producers.

One of the most expensive and least effective of all federal programs is the one designed to improve the level of education in the United States. In 1940 national expenditures for education were about $3.2 billion. In 1973 they were $96 billion. Have these enormous expenditures given us the kind of education we want for our children? Regrettably, the oppressive hand of government has given us disruption, empty classrooms and a lower level of education than ever before.

Lake Forest Man To Run For Auditor

Clyde W. Barnes Jr., of Lake Forest, has announced that he will be a candidate for the Republican nomination of Lake County Auditor in the March 16 primary election.

Barnes, a certified public accountant who holds the present title of chief deputy auditor, has been associated with County Auditor John Darrow since March, 1969.

One of Barnes' opponents for the Republican nomination will be Antioch's mayor, Robert C. Wilton, who announced his candidacy for the auditor's post early in November.

Darrow is not seeking re-election.

A Des Plaines, Ill., doctor has defined "love" and I'd like to share his views with you.

Marital myths are popular misconceptions about marriage that are held by the majority of people both prior to marriage and after marriage, according to Dr. Donald Kerste, director of Marital Services at Forest Hospital in Des Plaines.

"One of the most common of these myths," said Dr. Kerste, "is that people marry one another because they are in love. Certainly, most people when getting married do have strong feelings toward one another, but these often are mixed feelings of caring, physical excitement and 'turn on,' to use a modern phrase. True love, "Dr. Kerste believes, "when it does exist, comes after many, many years of growing together and living together."

"The definition of love I like best," Dr. Kerste continued, "is when the satisfaction and security of another person becomes as significant as one's own satisfaction and security. Then the state of love exists."

Snowmobile Top Prize in VFW Contest

Sequoit Post 4551 of the VFW is kicking off its snowmobile benefit this week to help its building fund.

First prize will be a Massey Ferguson Ski Whiz snowmobile and trailer, second prize, an automatic slo-cooker, donated by Wilton Electric, and third prize a gallon of whiskey.

Letter to the Editor

Open letter to the Village Board:

SUBJECT: Snowmobiling

Your home is your castle, as ours is our castle. Whatever we do in our yard is our business unless it interferes with your own peaceful enjoyment of your home.

Aside from other important considerations - whether, for instance, snowmobiling is a wholesome sport or a life-and-property-threatening activity, its loud and carrying sound must limit its operation to places where it does not at any time disturb the peace.

The state bans snowmobiles from all streets and 15 feet on either side. Nearby towns ban them from parks. If our ordinance takes similar action, banning the lakes as well as parks, the peace should be preserved. Those enjoying the sport surely do not wish to consciously inconvenience others.

Then, if enforcement becomes a problem, should not those putting additional demands on the police service, be the ones to bear the cost? This might be equitably done by a sufficiently high village licensing fee for snowmobile owners.

If any village officials or policemen enjoy snowmobiling, they can be of special help in setting an example in their own thoughtful use of their equipment - transporting their vehicles by trailer or truck to areas set aside for snowmobiling remote from residential areas.

Very truly yours,
Jessie Carter

Grade School Board Holds Special Meeting

A special meeting of the Antioch Grade School district's board of education was called for Tuesday night at 8:30, after this edition went to press.

Board president Gerald VanderMeer said the meeting was called for the discussion of administrative salaries and personnel.

There has been no official comment, but rumors are still circulating in Antioch that some members of the board are considering the possibility of not renewing the contract of the district's superintendent, Henry Meyer.

No action on Mr. Meyer's contract was taken at the Nov. 24 meeting because only four of the seven board members were present. About 100 teachers and parents were attracted to the meeting because of the rumor and Meyer told them:

"In a situation like this people may wonder if some kind of financial or moral scandal is involved. This is not the case. There is no scandal of any kind."

The next regular meeting of the school board is scheduled next Tuesday, Dec. 9.

football field. Attorney Lynch asked for authorization to prepare the annexation ordinance for passage at the next village board meeting.

He also asked the village to consider extending the CABL company's pre-annexation agreement for five more years after it expires in 1976. CABL's attorney, F. James Lumber, has requested the extension. The CABL property, west of Tiffany Rd., recently was annexed by the village and someday may be the site of a sizeable housing development. The village planning commission meets Thursday at 7:30 p.m. and the park board next Wednesday at 8 p.m. Next Monday's village board committee meetings were moved up from 7 p.m. to 5 p.m. so that members will be able to attend the Lions Club Christmas party that night.

More Money Expected for Cleaning Lakes

The 12 area legislators from northeastern Illinois (Lake and McHenry counties) have been informed that the State Department of Transportation will request $500,000 in its budget for next year to increase dredging activities in the Fox River-Chain of Lakes area.

They said the budget request, which is an increase over the $250,000 appropriated for the same purpose this year, is the result of a compromise between the 12 legislators and the governor's office.

During the last session of the legislature, the General Assembly passed a measure sponsored in the House by Rep. John Matijevich, D-North Chicago, and Senators Jack Schaffer, R-McHenry County, and Karl Berning, R-Deerfield, in the Senate, which would have appropriated $940,000 for the Fox River - Chain of Lakes dredging project.

The governor, however vetoed the entire bill but did provide $250,000 for dredging work in the regular Division of Waterways budget.

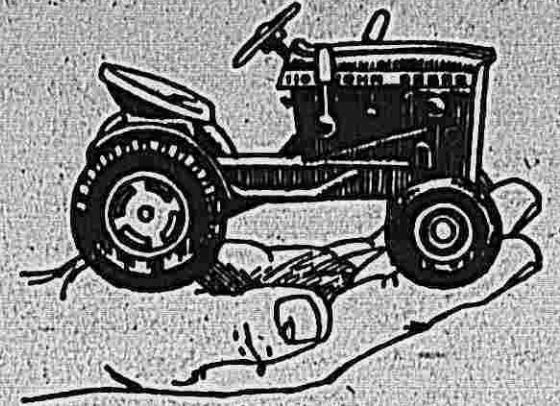

Rather than seek an override of the veto this fall with the state facing a severe shortage of funds, the legislators agreed to compromise by supporting the increased budget request for next year.

In ancient Egypt trial marriages were not unusual. They lasted a year and could then be dissolved by paying a forfeit.

ABC's of Travel

Domestic and International

By BARB CORBIN

It is that time of year again when many people will be traveling for the holidays to be spent with families. With some, this is the only time of the year they travel by air and forget the various rules and regulations.

As I have mentioned before, everyone must go through security. Not all airports have the modern machine type of security. At the smaller airports it is all done by hand and visual. This means one thing - all those nicely wrapped Christmas presents you want to carry on board the aircraft with you will have to be opened up at the airport. Therefore, all gifts should be checked with your luggage; if you must hand carry any; do not wrap them until you reach your destination.

It might be a good idea to follow this advice for all airports; for the other day Chicago's O'Hare Airport had to do security by hand as a result of power problems. This naturally takes twice as long, so for the coming holiday period, be sure and be at the airport at least one hour prior to departure.

For people meeting you at the other end, they should check with the airline and make sure your flight is on time. This will eliminate them making a trip out for nothing and making the airport more crowded than necessary. Happy holiday travels.

The ladies of the Prince of Peace Church in Lake Villa are making Christmas handcrafted items and miscellaneous crafts for their first annual Christmas Bazaar, Sunday, on Dec. 14, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the school.

Mrs. Karen O'Sullivan of Lake Villa, chairlady of the workers, said Santa Claus will be at the bazaar.

"You can have lunch with Santa from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.," she said.

4-H Club

To Meet

The Sequoit Warriors 4-H club will meet at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in the First National Bank's community room.

At their last meeting the group, led by Mrs. Carolyn Van Patten, elected Tom Hevrdejs as president, Jeff Harris vice president, Jill Levoe secretary, Lisa Holmes treasurer and Rosalie Aschbacher reporter.

'Golden Grotto' To Have More Performances

Antioch's PM&L Theatre helped the Chamber of Commerce usher in the Christmas season last Saturday with two performances of Cleve Hanbold's "The Golden Grotto." Now, PM&L is inviting area residents to bring the young and not so young of their family, or someone else's family, to an evening of mirthful entertainment.

"The Golden Grotto" is a story of times when wizards, dragons and valkyries were not so hard to come by. Through the bungling efforts of an awkward wizard named The Great Zauberinger, a gentle being pops back and forth between Princedom and Frogdom to the amazement and enjoyment of all.

Performances will be on Friday and Saturday, and Dec. 12 and 13, at 8:30 p.m. Ticket prices are 75 cents for students through high school age, and $1.25 for adults. Reservations can be made by calling 395-3055.

Sr. Citizens Get Tax Help

As in past years the teachers and administrators from the Antioch High School, and grade schools within the high school boundary lines, are setting aside a day to give assistance to senior citizens and disabled persons in completing the forms necessary for getting a property tax refund or rent refund from the state.

The bill has been improved over last year, so some senior citizens may be eligible for a refund this year, even though they were not eligible last year.

Retired or disabled persons may get forms and assistance from the First National Bank of Antioch, State Bank of Antioch, Antioch Savings & Loan, and Lake Villa Trust Savings.

On Thursday, Dec. 13, school people from the different schools will be at the Antioch Upper Grade School from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. to assist the retired or disabled in completing the forms. Those coming in for assistance should know what their income was for 1974, and the amount of property taxes paid this year, or the amount of their rent for 1974.

Those retired couples with an income under $10,000, and whose property tax is more than 4 percent of their income will qualify for a tax refund.

Renters with an income of under $10,000 will qualify if their annual rent is more than 16 percent of their income.

Those who were eligible for refund for 1972 and 1973 may still apply for a refund for those years, if they have not done so. The legislative bill making these refunds possible is sometimes confused with the Homestead Act. The two are entirely separate. The application for the property tax or rent refund must be made separate from the application for the Homestead Act.

Old Farmer's Riddle: What kind of beans do children like most? (Answer below.)

Ask the Old Farmer: My aunt lives in England and while visiting me, she said that she did not care for my hairdo - it reminded her of "Wild Betty." Who in the world was "Wild Betty"? T.L. Bolton, Texas.

Apparently most localities had a strange female about in ancient times - "Crazy Looney," "Wild Emmie," etc. - all unusual in that they neglected their hair.

Home Hints: If paper is stuck on top of a wood table, pour furniture oil on the paper and soak overnight. The next morning, rub gently with a soft cloth and the paper will come off ... Riddle answer: Jellybeans.

OLD FARMER'S WEATHER FORECASTS

New England: Early week much colder with occasional light snow; latter part cold with scattered flurries, snowstorm by week's end in central and north.

Greater New York-New Jersey: Most of week cloudy, cold with occasional light rain, and some light snow flurries by weekend.

Middle Atlantic Coastal: Week begins cloudy and seasonably cold with snow flurries; latter part rain and snow mixed, light in north and heavier in south, and colder.

Piedmont & Southeast Coastal: Mostly sunny at first, then seasonably cool in south, cold in central and north; end of week rain with scattered thunderstorms and snow in northwest.

Florida: Early week generally fair and mild, then turning cooler; latter part sunny and cool, then light rain.

Upstate N.Y.-Toronto & Montreal: Very cold all week, with intermittent light snow.

Greater Ohio Valley: Cloudy and colder throughout week, with rain and snow mixed in west, light snow in east.

Deep South: Some showers to start, then clearing and cool; rain latter part, scattered in central and west, heavier in east, then clear and cold again weekend.

Chicago & Southern Great Lakes: Cloudy and cold at first, with scattered snow flurries, then clearing and mild; latter part colder with light snow in north and east, sunny in west and south.

Northern Great Lakes: Week begins with snow in central and east, clear in west, then warming to normal; end of week mostly clear except for scattered light rain and snow.

Central Great Plains: Normally cold at beginning, then milder; light snow and rain scattered throughout area.

Texas-Oklahoma: Still sunny and cool in north and central, then warmer and very mild in south; cooling on weekend.

Rocky Mountain: Cold at first, then moderating midweek; some scattered light rain and snow latter part, heavy snow in mountains and mild in the south.

Southwest Desert: Sunny, becoming very warm by midweek; continuing mild, but below freezing nights in east.

Pacific Northwest: Cloudy and cold with intermittent light rain in south; rain continues throughout weekend, snow on mountains.

California: Heavy rain in north, snow in mountains and moderate rain south through midweek; partly cloudy and cool latter part, rain ends in south and becomes lighter in north.

As Seen Through The Want Ads Antioch, 51 Years Ago

By BETSY ROSSEN

As we've seen in the past couple of months, old issues of The Antioch News can tell quite a bit about the life and times of this village.

How have the readers been involved with their newspapers? A direct means of participation has been the classified advertisements - the "want ads."

Let's check what the citizens of the Antioch area communicated about themselves through the November and December issues of 1924 - 51 years ago.

Want ads were received by telephone: "Call Antioch 43 or Farmers Line."

FOR SALE PLAYER PIANO - Bargain to party completing $10.00 monthly payments on balance of $309.40 on Wm. Molton's $900.00 player piano.

This is a chance of a lifetime, Geo. L. Danner.

LOST - Saturday night in or near Williams Bros. store, leather check and pass book, with H.H. Rollins on cover. Will finder kindly return to News office.

FOR SALE - Overland touring car $25.00; Maxwell touring car, $25.00; 5-ton truck, ready to drive home, $100.00 Dr. Morrell.

WANTED - A girl or middle aged woman to work in a family of two. Apply to Mrs. Charles Harden, Lake Street.

FOR RENT - Two front rooms on ground floor, electric lights, couple without children or single lady. Phone Antioch 15952.

FOR SALE - Chunk wood in stove lengths delivered for $7.00 per ton. Inquire of J. White.

BETSY ROSSEN

FOR SALE - Nice lot of winter pears, David Minto.

SHORTHORN CATTLE - Males and females, from good milking dams, delivered for $100 and $125. Chester White fall pigs and breeding stock. Dark S.C. Rhode Island Red Roosters $2.00. Rhodesdale Farms.

FOR SALE - Electric vacuum sweeper; bargain at $35; never been used. S.M. Walance.

WANTED - At least two copies of the Antioch News dated August 14, 1924. Leave at News Office and receive compensation.

CANARIES FOR SALE - Siefert rollers from imported stock; day and night singers, with guarantee. Joe Koelstra, Lake Villa.

WANTED POSITION - Lady with girl, 12 years as housekeeper with one man. Theresa Schultz.

LOST - Bunch of keys, about 6 or 7, in Antioch. Leave at this office.

Finally, if you really want to know "what's the buzz?" see Wm. Girard's ad: FOR SALE - Twenty-five swarms of bees. Must sell at once.

Who Wants Lake Michigan?

Citizens of Northeastern Illinois will be asked to express their views on who should control Lake Michigan and its shoreline.

A 7:30 p.m. meeting will be held, Wednesday, Dec. 10, at the Winnetka Community House.

The Illinois Department of Transportation is assessing alternatives for further state involvement in the management of the Illinois shoreline.

Families Still Save, But Fear Inflation

American families continue to have a deep commitment to the philosophy of saving and they reject overwhelmingly the notion that inflation negates the rationale for saving.

This was one of the findings of a study of the American family conducted by Yankelovich, Skelly and White, Inc. and funded by General Mills, Inc.

The study also showed that Americans are worried that their savings are losing value as a result of inflation. Nevertheless, 56 percent of U.S. families surveyed say they managed to put some money in the bank in 1974.

Editorial Comment

Your Money Buys Awards

ONE OF THE YEAR'S most ridiculous news stories arrived this week from the Illinois Office of Education, from Joseph M. Cronin, state superintendent of education.

The state has made "awards to 200 persons making outstanding contributions to education in Illinois."

The awards go to teachers, school administrators, school board members, students and parents.

The list doesn't include anyone from Antioch, but 75 "outstanding teachers" have been honored, including Freddie Evans of Park Forest and Donald Good of Aledo.

Are Freddie and Donald better teachers than those we have here in Antioch, or in Lake Villa?

About 50 "outstanding school administrators" are listed, including Elmer Kirchoff of Caseyville and Mildred Menard of Kankakee.

Are Elmer and Mildred better school administrators than those we have here? How does Cronin's office know?

Twenty-two "outstanding school board members" have received awards, including Earl Beling of Moline and Ralph Godzicki of Deerfield. Are they better than our local school board members? Or those who serve in Mundelein?

About 25 "outstanding parents" also have been honored by the Illinois Office of Education, and 18 "outstanding students." What did the parents do, pack the best lunches? Cut their kids' hair?

C'mon, now. How do you pick outstanding teachers, administrators, school board members and parents of all people?

Don't taxpayers pay enough for education without the Illinois Office of Education wasting money on a naive project such as this?

Remember back when the greatest advance in snow removal was the aluminum shovel?

Nowadays the postman has to worry about a dog biting his tires.

Square Dancers Invite Newcomers

The local Diamond Hashers Square Dance Club is holding open dances the second Friday of each month at the Antioch Lower Grade School, from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m.

The club has been organized for about a year. Members are planning dances in the near future and invite all area dancers to come. Those who do not dance but would like to come as spectators are also invited.

The Friday Dec. 12, dance will be a "Scrooge dance." Bill Shymkus will call the dance. It will be a farewell performance for Bill.

Other events on the schedule include:

Jan. 9, Suzie Snowflake Dance - Caller: Gary Cox.

Feb. 13, Hearts and Flowers - Caller: Chuck Jaworski.

Mar. 12, Leaping Leprechauns - Caller: Ray Quade.

Apr. 9, One if by Land, Two if by Sea - Caller: Cliff Benson.

May 14, Blossomtime - Caller: "Boots" Laufenberg.

Officers of the club will welcome calls for more information. The presidents are Jim and Shelby Wais (395-1057) and the vice-presidents are Henry and Maxine Meyer (395-2314).

Christmas Concert Planned at ACHS

The annual Christmas Concert of Antioch Community High School will be held at 3 p.m. on Sunday, Dec. 14, in the school auditorium.

The school's fine arts department is planning the event. Music will be provided by the concert band, directed by John Olisar, and the a cappella choir, directed by Ralph Brooke.

Selected ensembles will add to the entertainment.

Tickets are available from members of the fine arts department and also will be sold at the door on Dec. 14.

The choir has produced a stereo album of familiar Christmas music and it will go on sale locally this Saturday for the price of $5.

Santa to Have Breakfast at Grass Lake School

The public is invited to join Santa Claus for breakfast Sunday at Grass Lake School.

School officials report that Santa's elves will be serving pancakes, juice, hot chocolate, coffee and milk from 9 a.m. till 12 noon.

The price is $1 for adults, 50c for children, and free for tots under 3 years of age.

There will be door prizes donated by local merchants. People who want to take pictures of Santa should bring their own cameras.

Movies at Library

Movies will be shown at 10:30 a.m. Saturday at the Antioch Township Library for children in kindergarten through the third grade. This Saturday's movies are "Dragon Stew,"

"Puss in Boots" and "Peter and the Wolf."

Pre-school story hours are held at the library on Wednesdays from 12:30 to 1 p.m.

'Messiah' At Abbey On Sunday

The Antioch Community Chorus will present the Christmas portion of Handel's "Messiah" on Sunday.

Two performances are scheduled: the first at 3 p.m. and the second at 8 p.m. They will take place in the sanctuary at St. Benedict's Abbey, Benet Lake, a half mile north of Antioch.

Featured in the sacred oratorio will be five soloists.

Pat Jamison, soprano, received a bachelor of music education degree from Millikin University. From college she moved to New York to work in the theatre where she appeared in "Once Upon a Mattress" and was the understudy to the show's star, Imogene Coca. She also appeared as Kay Medford's understudy in the Broadway production of "Bye, Bye Birdie." She has appeared in summer stock, PM&L plays and in operatic roles during her varied career.

Eva Harper, contralto, studied at Northwestern where she received both an undergraduate and a graduate degree from the School of radio and television audiences as well as at Ravinia Park and Grant Park in Chicago.

Ralph G. Brooke, tenor, received his bachelor's degree in music from Louisiana College, and a Masters of Music degree from Millikin. He currently serves as choral director and chairman of the Fine Arts department of Antioch High School.

Bernard Izzo, baritone, is an associate professor of music at North Central College, Naperville, where he is director of choral activities. Mr. Izzo has been a member of the Lyric Opera of Chicago for 19 years and holds the company's record of over 300 performances. He is a frequent soloist with the Chicago Symphony at its Ravinia Festival.

Mr. Izzo will perform in the evening performance only due to other commitments.

Jeffrey Lamont, baritone, is a graduate of North Central, where he performed with all the vocal ensembles. He is now a medical student at the University of Illinois. Mr. Lamont will sing in the afternoon performance only.

The oratorio will be conducted by Ken Smouse and will feature Tracy Teltz at the piano, Charles Sherman Jr. at the organ and Chris Lindberg on flute.

Rita Rosol Shields, Mary Chris LaKome and Ralph Brooke have all served as rehearsal conductors.

Tickets can be obtained through the local churches, from members of the chorus and at the door on Sunday.

ARIES [March 21 - April 19] — Use your farsighted know-how to plan ahead for the coming week. Utilize your time so that you can get things done that are past due.

TAURUS [April 20 - May 20] — Don't make far-fetched commitments that are impossible to carry out. This is a week to be reflective of past actions. Make improvements.

GEMINI [May 21 - June 21] — Look to one in the know for advice; you gain by being cooperative with superiors. Show that you are eager to accept new responsibilities and duties.

CANCER [June 22 - July 21] — The urge to create a new environment may predominate this week. Seeing new faces and places can give you quite an uplift. If travel is out of the question then make plans that allow you to circulate on home ground.

LEO [July 22 - August 21] — Be sure that your fixed ideas are sound. Although judgment is good, there is a tendency toward obstinacy on your part. You may have to bend a little and listen to advice of others.

VIRGO [August 22 - September 22] — Focus your attention solely on getting the job done. There's plenty of time for recreational activities as the week progresses. Include young people in your plans.

LIBRA [September 23 - October 22] — Use care in confiding personal affairs with others. Trust only the tried and true friends. Make plans that revolve around the home, plan a party, be sure to include family members.

SCORPIO [October 23 - November 21] — New challenges may arise, just be sure those new interests don't conflict with already pending plans.

SAGITTARIUS [November 22 - December 21] — Your loyalty toward higher-ups won't go unnoticed. Show that you are dependable and trustworthy. If funds are limited, plan a week-end that affords social outlet without draining the finances.

CAPRICORN [December 22 - January 20] — You are apt to be impatient with co-workers. Try to show tactfulness and be objective. Total agreement may not be possible but a compromising medium can be the solution.

AQUARIUS [January 21 - February 19] — Go after that new venture with zest and enthusiasm. You have the ability to attain new goals. Be aggressive.

PISCES [February 20 - March 20] — Try not to get too involved in petty details. It's more important to move forward at a progressive, constructive pace.

Beverly Reckers (left) creates bouquets for her daughter's bridesmaids. Her mother, Mrs. Ila Lasco (right) also made Beverly's wedding flowers 25 years ago, and her other daughter, Carol Delaney's (center) 10 years ago.

A Family Tradition

Did you ever wonder what it would be like to make all the flowers for your own daughter's wedding?

Last Saturday when Cheryl Reckers and Greg Collins were married, Cheryl's mother, Mrs. Preston Reckers, worked for several days creating the floral designs for the bridal party, the church and the reception ... just as her mother, Mrs. Ila Lasco, had done for her 25 years ago; and for her other daughter, Carol Delaney, 10 years ago.

Mrs. Reckers - Bev, as most of her customers call her - used candlebra, white roses, gladioli, and spider mums to transform the Antioch United Methodist Church into a beautiful background for the wedding ceremony.

The Illinois Beach Lodge was decorated with smilax roping and hurricane candle floral centerpieces to complement the spice-orange color of the bridesmaids' dresses and bouquets.

The bride's bouquet was a crescent design of white roses, stephanotis and baby's breath, centered with phalaenopsis orchids.

The photos show Bev, her mother and sister creating in Lasco's workshop while Bev's partner, Robert Smith, and son Larry Reckers were busy decorating the church and banquet room.

Exhausted but happy, the bride's mother relaxed after the wedding and told her husband:

"When I saw our daughter coming down the aisle carrying the bouquet I had made for her, it was worth every nerve-wracking moment. Now I know how Mom felt when we were married and of all the experiences she and I shared while working together for 25 years in the floral business. This was the greatest thrill of them all."

Before ... Beverly Reckers designs her daughter Cheryl's bridal bouquet for her marriage last Saturday to Gregory Collins.

Bev applies finishing touches to altar bouquets so her partner, Robert Smith, can use them in the church decorations. Bev and Bob recently assumed the ownership of Lasco's Florists and Greenhouse, 965 Main St., from Bev's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H.L. Lasco.

After ... The finished product. The mother of the bride, Bev Reckers and her daughter, Cheryl, pose with the bridal bouquet just before the wedding.

Rainbow Girls' Sponsors to Meet

The annual meeting of the sponsoring group of the Antioch Assembly of the Order of the Rainbow for Girls will be held on Sunday, Dec. 14, at 2 p.m. in the Masonic Temple, 885 Main St.

The group will elect a new advisory board for the Antioch

Assembly. The year's work also will be reviewed.

Interested Eastern Star, Mason and majority Rainbow members are invited to attend.

27 Educators To Evaluate High School

Twenty-seven educators are to make an on-site evaluation of Antioch Community High School Dec. 8 through Dec. 11.

Principal Art Blecke said the evaluation team is to be chaired by Larry Eggleston, superintendent, Paxton Community Unit School District. Mr. Eggleston has chaired several North Central evaluations in recent years.

Principal Blecke said that "the purpose of this evaluation is to help the school look at itself objectively. For the last 16 months the school has been engaged in a comprehensive self-study, seeking to identify its strength and determine those areas in which change would seem to be desirable. The North Central Association will bring an outside professional viewpoint to the evaluation."

The North Central Association is a voluntary league of 4,000 secondary schools and 650 colleges and universities within a 19 state region. A full evaluation is required of every member school within two years of its admission into the association and a re-evaluation is required once every seven years thereafter.

Antioch Community High School was last evaluated in 1968.

In the 9th century, the King of Persia was known as the Illustrious Jam.

High School Names Honor Roll Students

BE WISE: ADVERTISE

GREAT GAS TANKS

You may not have to pay as much for your fuel in the future as you otherwise would have, thanks to some new, economical, technological ideas. Giant tankers and floating terminals for liquefied fuels can now be set up to help keep the cost of fuel down with the aid of special measuring instruments first developed for the Apollo space program.

The first such terminal will be moored in the Java Sea in the middle of a rich off-shore gas field. Petroleum gas, such as propane, will be fed to the terminal by underwater lines, converted into a liquid by refrigeration up to -50° F. and stored in special tanks.

Liquefaction greatly reduces the volume of the fuel, making transportation more economical and because the terminal's moored at sea, it's easier for the big tankers to load. Since they can carry so much more, transportation costs are less. The off-shore terminal will also make it possible to reclaim millions of dollars worth of precious fuel supplies formerly burned off as a waste product in underwater drilling operations.

To monitor this vital cargo, the people who build these gigantic terminals are using a total cargo instrumentation and control system developed by Simmonds Precision Products Inc. These measuring instruments provide accurate accounts, display and print-outs, of how much fuel is stored and how much is transferred from terminal to tanker, measuring the weight, temperature, number of gallons and density of the gas.

This enormous, ocean-going "gas station," it seems, could help put more energy into the American economy.

Sequoits Wrestle Here on Saturday

Antioch wrestlers took to the mats last week with a disappointing 38-23 loss to Mundelein, but rebounded with a 29-22 win over Zion and placed four wrestlers in the Rich South Thanksgiving Tournament.

Tuesday night the Sequoits opened at home against Mundelein. The visiting Mustangs had already wrestled two meets and the Antioch inexperience showed as Mundelein looked more poised than the young Sequoits. Antioch's winners were Robin Aerne 119, Greg Nordstrom 132, John Kakacek 138, Dick Kessler 185, and Bob Ducato hwt.

At Zion the Sequoits settled down and handled the Zion ZeeBees winning 6 matches, tying two, and losing 3. Antioch had to forfeit the 98 lb. weight class.

Antioch entered the 32 team Rich South Tournament for the first time and finished in 16th place as a team. This tournament is one of the finest

Radio Coverage

Antioch's wrestling meet Saturday will be broadcast by WKRS-radio, beginning at 2 p.m.

in the state and included last year's state championship team. Bloom High School, as well as many individual state place winners.

Eleven Antioch wrestlers won at least one match with John Davis 126 and Greg Nordstrom 132 placing fourth in the championship bracket. Tim VanderMeer 98 and Dick Kessler 185 placed fourth in the consolation bracket.

This week Antioch takes on arch rival Grant on the Bulldog mats at 6:45 Friday. Antioch and Grant are both pre-season favorites to win the conference title and the meet should prove to be a test of relative strengths.

Antioch must pin its hopes on several wrestlers getting down to weight, to strengthen the line-up and the return of 185 pounder Dick Kessler to the line-up. Dick broke his nose in Rich South Tournament and will have to wrestle with a special mask to protect his injured nose.

Saturday the Sequoits wrestle the improved Wauconda Bulldogs at home at 1 p.m. WKRS (1220) will broadcast the varsity meet at 2:00 p.m. This is the first time local radio has broadcast wrestling and we are proud that Antioch was selected to be the first host. If you can't attend the meet be sure to tune in on Saturday.

Soph Cagers Aim to Improve

The Antioch sophomore basketball team lost two games while winning one game in the Barrington Thanksgiving tournament.

Antioch lost to Barrington, the sophomore tournament winner by a score of 50 to 47 and lost to Elgin-Larkin 61 to 53. The lone win was over Cary-Grove, 50 to 38.

In the Barrington game Tom Huebner led the scoring for Antioch with 12 points followed by Brian Andrews and Tracy Sodman, each with 10.

BILL DUBEK led the scoring for Antioch with 25 points, followed by Andrews with 10, in the Elgin-Larkin game.

Andrews and Sodman shared scoring honors in the Cary-Grove game with 12 points each.

Antioch led most of the way in all three games but couldn't hold on to the lead in the first two games. In the Cary-Grove game, they could not get going until the last half when they held Cary-Grove to 13 points while scoring 23 themselves.

Coach Allen feels his team must improve in several areas if it is to be a consistent winner. He cited rebounding, defense and outside shooting as weaknesses which need to be corrected.

The sophs will play Grant this Friday evening in their first home game, and first conference game of the season. It will start at 6:45 p.m.

Dave Gutowski Wins Basketball Contest, and $15

Elgin Larkin edged Antioch by one point, 59-58, last Friday in the Barrington Thanksgiving tournament.

In the Antioch News' basketball contest, two fans predicted Larkin would win by three points. They were Dave Gutowski of 489 Crest Lane and Steve Lasco of Rt. 2, Box 50.

To determine the winner, we had to use the "tie-breaker," Saturday night's game against Cary-Grove. Antioch won by three points. Dave said the Sequoits would win by 14 and Steve said by 18.

So Dave Gutowski wins first prize, $15 in cash from Thelen's Sand and Gravel company.

Steve Lasco wins second prize, a $10 gift certificate from

Gibbs and Jenssen's "Carousel."

Third prize, a $5 gift certificate at Swan's Liquors, goes to Bruce Tossey, who was a member of the Antioch team last year.

Another contest appears in today's paper. First prize will be $15 in cash from Antioch Firestone, second prize a $10 gift certificate at Andre's Steak House in Richmond, and third prize a $5 gift certificate at the Piggy Bank Discount Store.

All you have to do is guess the outcome of Friday night's game between Antioch's Sequoits and Grant's Bulldogs. The game will be played in Antioch at 8 p.m.

Hockey Team Has New Home In Waukegan

The Lake County Flyers professional hockey team will move again.

Moving from Kenosha to Zion at the beginning of this season, the Flyers will now play their home games at the new Waukegan Twin-Ice Arena on Grand Ave. just east of the village of Gurnee.

"We are very excited about the move because at the Waukegan rink we will be able to run our operation in the professional manner to which we were accustomed in Kenosha last season," said Owner-

Coach Don Walsh of Antioch. "The operation of the rink and the whole program at Zion was hush league and the players reacted to it and it reflected in their play."

The Flyers were still without the services Sunday of high scoring forward Dave Maciuk, acquired from the Chicago Cardinals, they lost 6-3 to Peoria. The Flyers expect Maciuk to be in uniform for this Saturday night's clash with the St. Louis Saints. Game time is 8:15.

Michalak Tops 30 for CLC

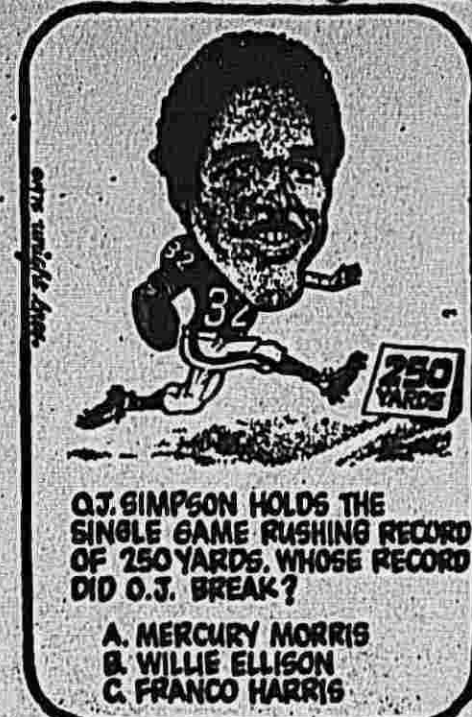

FORMER ANTIOCH High School star, Pat Michalek, scored 31 points last Friday to lead the College of Lake County to an 85-78 win over Waubesa. Michalek, 6-foot-5, is the center for the CLC team.

Mike Gutowski, another former Antioch star, also is a member of the CLC varsity. He hit 11 points in a recent game against Harper Junior College.

A STAR wrestler at Antioch High School the past two years, Scott Shaffer is now wrestling at 118 pounds for the varsity team at Western Illinois University in Macomb.

Sequoits 2-1 After First Tourney

Play 3 Close Games

By MIKE WITT

If last week's Barrington tournament is any indication of what the Sequoit future will be like, Antioch fans are in for one exciting basketball season.

The fighting Sequoits shared a first place record of 2-1 with Barrington and Elgin-Larkin, thanks to Barrington, which put back Larkin in the final game to create the tie.

All of Antioch's games were close as they nipped Barrington 58-55, lost a heartbreaker to Larkin 59-58, and managed to get past Cary-Grove 53-50. Thus, they came within two points of being the single champ.

Barrington

The Broncos started out as if they were going to run away with the game, and led after one quarter 18-11. Antioch was having a hard time getting the ball upcourt, and looked disorganized.

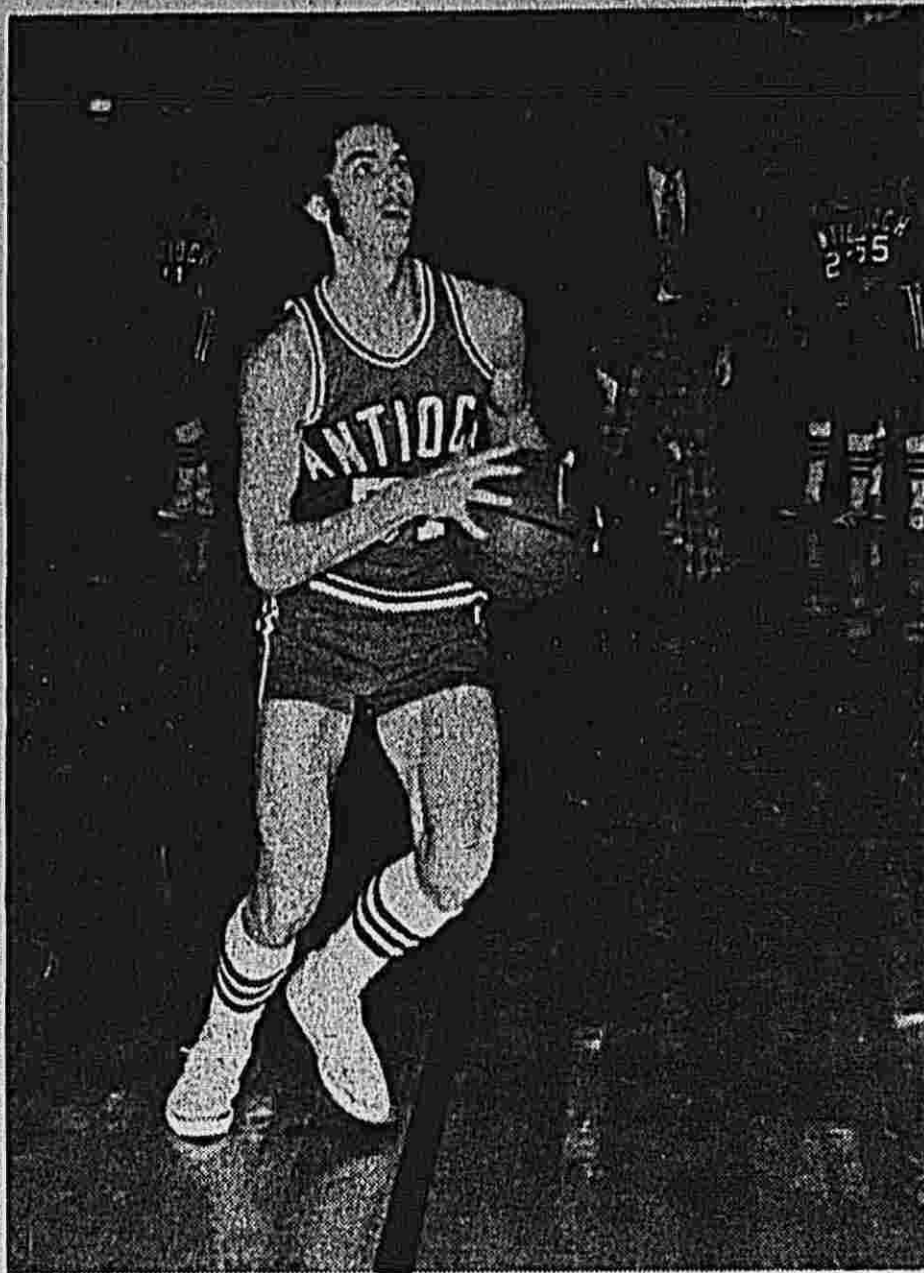

Enter Tom MacAvoy. Subbing for Jon Bodin, he got the offense moving and sparked Antioch with his hustle to take a 29-28 halftime lead.

Taking a 48-44 lead into the fourth quarter, the Sequoits shut out their opponents until 4:08 remained in the game. However, with Scott Kimball having fouled out in the last quarter, Antioch was also having a hard time scoring and led only 56-53 with 37 seconds remaining.

But MacAvoy made a free throw (he banked it) for a four point lead and Bodin iced the win with seven seconds left with another gifter for a 58-55 victory.

Antioch looked very sloppy, committing at least 20 turnovers. This was partially offset by their control of the boards 24-18.

Kimball led Antioch with 21

"ALL-TOURNAMENT" -- George Ferguson of Antioch, along with teammate Scott Kimball, was named to the all-tournament team last week after the Barrington Turkey Classic. Ferguson averaged 15 points a game and in the tough battle with Elgin Larkin he pulled down 14 rebounds.

points and George Ferguson added 17.

Elgin-Larkin

After having seen Cary-Grove play, the Sequoits could foresee winning the tournament if they could beat Larkin.

Late into the third quarter things looked good. Antioch was holding a 13 point lead, and Larkin was fading. Its big man, 6-9 Mike Henry, was on the bench with four fouls. Antioch was playing good ball, had no foul trouble, and looked in control of the game.

But Larkin's coach gambled at this point and put the big man back in. He hit two straight buckets and rallied them to a 48-42 deficit at the end of three quarters.

The fourth quarter must have been a nightmare for Coach Roger Andrews as everything turned around on the Sequoits, including the momentum of the game.

Tom Sedar, who entered in the second quarter and had played excellently up to this point, suddenly had trouble as did his backcourt partner, Bodin. Larkin's pressure caused costly turnovers.

Scott Kimball fouled out with 4½ minutes remaining, and this killed the Sequoits, who lack bench strength. Larkin played 12 people compared to seven for Antioch. It was especially evident at this point because with Ferguson and Bob Dubek each having four fouls, and Coach Andrews electing to stay in a man-to-man defense, Mitch Witt, 6-2, had to guard 6-9 Henry.

Antioch stayed close, thanks to Larkin's coldness at the free throw line, and Antioch had the ball with 13 seconds left and down by one point.

But Dubek's winning shot was rejected by Larkin's big man and Ferguson's rebound shot (in which a foul could easily have been called) was also blocked.

Antioch's inability to get the ball upcourt and its failure to stay on the boards in the last quarter led to the defeat.

Ferguson played a solid game as he led Antioch with 15 points and 14 rebounds. Witt and Dubek popped in 13 and 11 points respectively.

Cary-Grove

During the first quarter, Antioch showed the fans how they can play ball. They easily broke the Trojan's press, getting numerous lay-ins, used the fast break effectively from a zone defense, and looked quite the opposite from the last quarter the night before. But a breakdown on the defensive boards helped to keep Cary-Grove close at the end of one quarter, 17-12.

A combination of being out-hustled and a very poor shot selection on Antioch's part enabled Cary-Grove to trail by only one point at halftime, 24-23.

Some hot fourth quarter shooting by Cary-Grove gave them a one point lead with one minute remaining. But clutch free throw shooting by Kimball with 51 seconds left, and by Ferguson with 13 seconds remaining, gave the Sequoits a 53-50 win.

Judging from the Sequoits' play at Barrington, their strength lies in the scoring and rebounding of Kimball, Ferguson and Dubek. These three all played a good tournament. However, all three are aggressive players, especially Kimball as he fouled out twice. Ferguson and Kimball were named to the all-tournament team.

For the Sequoits this year, foul trouble looks like a danger.

Bench strength, ball handling, and occasional lapses on rebounding also are big problems at the moment.

I look for a much improved team this Friday night as the Sequoits open their conference play against Grant at home. When these two teams get together, a rough and exciting game is always in the making. This Friday night promises to be no different. Game time is 8 o'clock for the varsity game. Sophs start at 6:45.

Sequoits Begin Title Defense

Antioch High's basketball team has won two straight conference championships and would like to try for a third.

The Sequoits get their first chance to make a good impression before the home fans when they play Grant's Bulldogs here Friday at 8 p.m.

It should be an interesting game. Antioch's coach, Roger Andrews, considers Grant one of the pre-season favorites in the Northwest Suburban conference.

Grant placed third last weekend in Woodstock's Thanksgiving tournament. The Bulldogs lost to Deerfield 71-51, then beat Forest View 56-50.

Kevin Kelly, who quarter-backed Grant to the conference football championship, scored 19 points against Forest View, and he had 20 against Deerfield.

Coach Andrews saw some bright spots in Antioch's three games in last week's Barrington tournament. The Sequoits won two close ones, and lost their other game by only one point.

"Most of the players followed instructions and were cool under pressure," Andrews said. "Bright spots included the great play of George Ferguson and the improved play of Jon Bodin with each tourney game."

"The players off the bench did a good job," Andrews said. He mentioned Tom McAvoy, Tom Sedar and Jim Abderholden in particular.

The coach also praised the "good, steady play of Bob Dubek" and Kimball's performances in the Barrington and Cary-Grove victories.

Kimball hit on 11 of 18 shots against Barrington and wound up with 23 points. Against Cary-Grove he also scored 23, swishing seven of 10 free throws.

MASSEY

New Massey Snowmobiles: Excitement engineering by the sled full.

Come in and take a look at three great new Massey snowmobiles for 1976, and you'll know what we mean by excitement engineering.

These Masseys are loaded with innovative new ideas that will add to your snowmobiling excitement this year—in terms of performance, handling, dependability and comfort.

There's CYCLONE, the big performance cross-country competitor... CHINOOK, the economical compact... and WHIRLWIND, the exciting all-around sports machine with an unbelievable ride.

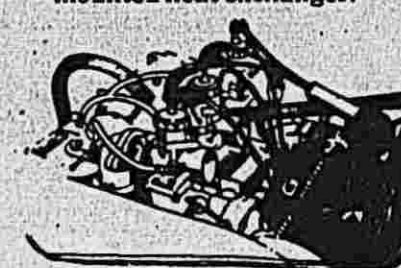

Each new Massey snowmobile has an aluminum alloy tunnel. It eliminates rust and corrosion problems while contributing to the superior power-to-weight ratio offered by all the new Masseys.

Then there's the patented Para-Rail suspension on the Whirlwind. Para-Rail settles the argument between bogie and slide by providing the best of both. You get the ride and performance of a slide and the marginal snow versatility of a bogie.

Rail-mounted wheels act as a single unit, working with a double-acting rear shock to give you a ride that's comfortable as well as extremely stable. And a unique "torque transfer system" puts sled weight to the rear for extra track contact during acceleration, then moves the weight forward for better handling and a smooth ride at higher speeds.

Another significant innovation is the Broton liquid-cooled engine in Massey Cyclone models. This proven engine is a performance power plant, with both two-cylinder and three-cylinder models offering a Mikuni slide carburetor for each cylinder. Engine coolant is cooled by snow in a tunnel-mounted heat exchanger.

All new Massey snowmobiles offer a great new torque and speed sensing clutch system that delivers an outstanding percentage of horsepower to the track, without the banging noises often associated with snowmobile clutches.

A tuned exhaust system on all three machines helps you get the most from every drop of fuel, thanks to a scavenging effect that creates extra torque and higher rpm's. Quiet, too!

There's more to the Massey snowmobile story, as you'll discover when you come in. We've got service know-how, we have parts in stock, and we offer MF financing if you desire.

When you look at excitement engineering, and what we offer to back it up, you'll go Massey this year.

Commentary

For Safer Hunting

Each year the hunting season is marred by accidents which could have been prevented by the proper practice of firearms safety.

To prevent some of these mishaps, the Illinois Conservation Department will issue no hunting licenses to persons under 16 years of age unless they have previously held such a license or have satisfactorily completed a hunter-safety course.

These strengthened requirements were made mandatory through legislation passed by the General Assembly and signed by Gov. Dan Walker. They will be implemented beginning next July 1.

Tony Dean, director of the Department of Conservation, believes the hunter-safety course is preferable to a year or two of experience for a young hunter.

"We would prefer that all youthful hunters take the course in hunter-safety," said Dean. "When a youngster is learning to hunt it is essential for him to begin with proper techniques in order to make safe practices instinctive. We would much prefer to have young hunters take hunter-safety training, even though they may have possessed a previous license."

"We would also like to see adults attend the course," said Dean. "No one is too old to learn, or review, gun safety."

Nineteen other states and two Canadian provinces require hunter-safety certificates prior to issuing hunting licenses. There are more than 475 qualified hunter-safety instructors in Illinois, and the free courses are offered throughout the year.

Practice makes perfect. That's why some people keep making the same mistake.
